

- Transition area opens at 6:00 a.m.
- You must be body-marked and have your bike number affixed before you are allowed in the transition area. Body marking will take place on the eastern end of the transition area.
- Only race participants and race officials are allowed in transition area
- All bikes must be racked by 7:20 a.m.

- Once your bike is brought in the transition area it cannot be taken out for practice, repairs or other reasons
- Transition area will be cleared at 7:30 a.m.
- No bikes or gear can be removed until ALL cyclists have returned from the bike course
- You must show your run number to remove your bike and gear from the transition area

